the purpose of carrying gospel work among the laborers in the pineries of northern Michigan, with headquarters at East Saginaw, has issued an appeal to all Christian churches for help carrying on this important work. There are 40 000 woodsmen in the pineries of Michigan alone. Every other class the soldiers, sailors, miners, convicts, paupers, infidels, and insane have the Gospel. Effective missions are supported among the Jews, the Mormons, the Indians, and the Chinese, but not mong the woodsmen. In short, no class of men in Europe or America is neglected except the woodsmen, and the injurious effects of this neglect are patent to the most casual observer. The field is peculiar, requiring special agents, methods, and means, and the field is also large. The executive com-mittee states that if 100 trained mis-

He is Said to be in Mexico.

A letter from Adrian dated Nov. 10, gives the following information about the erring ex-mayor of that city: The fact that no responses were received here yesterday to the telegrams of inquiry sent to El Paso, in regard to the reported capture of T. J. Navin, enadered the idea in the public mind that the matter was, perhaps, a practical joke. Later developments, however, indicate that there is something in it, and that the fugitive may yet be returned to the scene of his ambitious exploits, and expiate in the service of the state some of the many misdeeds of which he has been guilty. Sheriff Bidwell has as yet heard nothing from his fellow officer, but last evening the Times of this city received the following from the editor of the El Paso Herwho had been telegraphed to interview the sheriff and his prisoner and OLD STATIONERY .- Many were the expedients resorted to by the early scribes for the supply of writing materials. There was no scribbling paper whereon to jot down trivial memoranda or accounts, but the heaps of broken pots and crockery of all sorts, which are so abundant in all Eastern towns, prove the first suggestion for such china tablets and slates as we tiles were constantly used for this purpose, and remain to this day. Fragments of ancient tiles thus scribbled on have been found in many places. The island of Elephantine, on the Nile, is said to have furnished more than 100 specimens of these memoranda, which are now in various museums. One of these is a soldier's leave of absence, scribbled on a fragment of an old vase. Still quainter were the writing materials of the ancient Arabs. who before the time of Mohammed used to carve their annels on the shoulder-blades of sheep; these "sheepbone chronicles" were strung together and thus preserved. After a while sheep's bones were replaced by sheep's skin, and the manufacture of parchment was brought to such perfection as to place it among the refinements of art. We hear of vellums that were tinted yellow, others white; others were dyed o' a rich purple, and the writing thereon was in golden ink, with golden borders and many-colored lecorations. These precious manuscripts were anointed with the oil of cedar to preserve them from moths. Still more precious was the silky pa per of the Persians, powdered with gold and silver dust, whereon were painted rare illuminations, while the book was perfumed with attar of roses or essence of sandalwood. Of the demand for writing materials one may form some faint notion from the vas manuscript libraries of which records have been preserved, as having been collected by the caliphs both of the east and west, the former in Bagdad, the latter in Andalusia, where there were 80 great public libraries, besides that vast one at Cordova. hear of private libraries, such as that of a physician who declined an invitation from the sultan of Bokhara be cause the carriage of his books would have required 400 camels.

But these figures are not represented to apply to any except the very choicest trees and an uncommonly good year. But even computing the profits of olive culture at as low a figure as oneenth, a twenty-acre ranch would suport a family very comfortably after ix or seven years of waiting. One of the great advantages of olive culture s the fact that irrigation in not need ed. In a climate where there is a a matter of much importance. ACTIVE ANARCHISTS. Placards have been posted on the walls of principal buildings and on bullstin boards of Lyons, France, calling for another socialists demonstration there. The jauthorities are unable to discover who placed the placards so secretly has the work been done, but full notice has been given and it is protable that the demonstration will take piace. the police are on the alert and will prevent if possible, any outbreak or tendency to become unruly. The military continue in barracks ready to be called on at any moment. It is not likely that the anarchis's will find smooth sailing as before if they attempt to disturb the peace of the city and nation.

CRIMINAL MATTERS.

A HARD CASE. James Bean, the Texas desperado, who was taken to Wellington, Ks., some two weeks since and lodged in jail for having killed City Marshal Brown at Caldwell last summer, died the other day, from wounds received captured him near Decatur. He had 12 shots in him and two Winchester bal's. The post mortem showed that his death was directly due to a No. 2 shot which had struck him to the forehead, and entering had pussed entirely through his brain and lodged in the base of the skull. Though this shot had entered his brain and others through the body, he lived for 30 days and talked of recovery up to within 24 hours of his death, at which time he became unconscious. He had been a desperate man, having been engaged in deeds of atracity since he was 20 years old, and carried, besides

POLITICAL POINTS.

SCUEMBER ELECTIONS. General elections were held Nov. 7th in 21 states. The following, 15 in ali, elected governore: California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New York, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Texas. In Itinois, Indiane, Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri and North Carolina, inferior state officers were elected. Congressional delegates were chosen in eight territories, and congressmen in all 'he states except Maire, Onto, Oregon, Vermont and West Virginia. For state officers there were Republican and Democratic tickets in the field everywhere except in Michigan, where there was a fusion of Democrats and Green backers; North Carolins, where the tickets were Democratic and Liberal or anti-bourbon of Nevata — Advices from Carson and Reno, Nevata indicate that the Democrate elected na, inferior state officers were elected. Con were Democratic and Liberal or anti-bourbon were Democratic and Liberal or anti-bourbon Democratic; South Carolina, and Texas, where the tickets were Democratic and Opposition. In Pennsylvania the Republicans were divided into Regular and Independent, and in Tennessee there was a State Credit Democratic ticket and a Low Tax Democratic. Greenback tickets were run in California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Massachusetts (with the same nomines for governor as the Democrats, but with another man for lieutenant governor), Michigan, Missouri, Nebraska (antionopoly and greenback) New Hampshire, New York, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, (supported by the Republicans) and Tennes see. Separate Prohibition tickets were run in California, Connecticut, Lilinois, Ma suchusetts, Michigan, New Hampshire and New York. Legislatures, wholly or in part, were elected in California, Colorado, Connecticu', Delaware Fioride, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesote, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania South Carolina, Texas and Wisconsin The returns at this writing (the morning of November 8th.) are meager and unsatisfactory, bet sufficient is known to assert beyond question that the lower house of the next congress will be democratic by a good majority. New Vork. New Jersey and Connecticut have elected democratic governors, while Begole (fusion) bas carried Michigan against Jerome. In New Hampshire the count is close, with chances in favor of the republican candidate. All or the Southern states are democratic. Nebraska, litinois, Iowa, Minnesota and Rhode Island are republican.

LATER ELECTION ECHOES.

Alabama.-All of the congress local districts have gone democratic. Pryor will be the only new member. Shelley is also elected to fill out his term in the present congress from which he was ousted, the Republicans voting in favor or J. Q. Smith, who died before taking his seat. A special election will have to be ordered in the eighth district. It requires 20 days better of election and there was not 30 days' notice of election and there was not time after Congressman Lowe's death to give

Arkansas.—All democratic congressmen chosen, but the total vote was not more than half that polled in September. Ar zona.—The vote was large all over the territory. Oury's (dem. for congress) election is certain. The legislature is probably democratic.

Colorado.—Forty-nine pracints throughout the state outside of Darrer, size Grant, Dam., ton governor a majority of 397; Wallace, Dem., tor, governor a majority of 397; Wallace, Dem., for congress, 93 majority. At this ratio the state will be carried for Grant and Wallace California.—Further returns indicate that Stoneman's majority in the state, at large, will reach 1,809. The Democrats make a cean-sweep of the state and congressional toket, Page's defeat being now assured by defections in Alameda, 'Sacramento and San Joaquin counties, augregating about 3,000 votes. The legislature is not yet figured up, but the Democrats will have a majority in both houses.

Connecticut.—The total vote of the state is Connecticut.—The total vote of the state is 115,233, distributed as follows: Waller, Dem., 59,020; Bulkier, Rep., 54,812; Rogars, temperance, 831; Tanner, Greentack 500. The assembly will lack one representative, owing to a tie to be decided by the legislature. It stands 138 Republicans and 110 Democrats. Senate, 13 Republicans and 12 Democrats. For congress, Earon, Dem., in the first district has a plurality of 713, Muchell, Dem., second district, a plurality of 1,824, Walt, Rep., third district, a plurality of 1,824, Wait, Rep., third district, a plurality of 1,815, and Section, for rtn district, a plurality of 1,453. The Republican candidate for comptroller. Gen. Frank D Sloat, is probably elected. His name was on a ticket circulated by a German society, and he is popular in the grand army and other organizations. He ran ahead of his ticket generally.

Delaware.—Complete returns of the entire state give Stockley, Dem., for governor. a majority of 1,535. For congress, Love, Dem., has a majority of 2,200.

Indians.—The Republican committee pow claim the election of Stanton J Pecie, Republican, by 50 majority. Halcock county gives Engilso, Democrat, 467 majority; Shelby county, Engilso, 126 majority and Marion county Pecie 613 majority. the Democratic committee do not concede his election and claim the (flicial vote will change the result. In Marion county the Republican elect a clerk, auditor, treasurer, prosecuting attorney and two judges of the super irt. The Democrats elect a sheriff, sen ator, fire representatives, one judge of the superior court, judge of the criminal court and a joint Republican with Bartholomew courty. Five hundred and forty voting places in the state show a Republican loss on the state ticket of 8,693, and a Democratic less of 2, 241, being a net Democratic gain of 6,440, which would lilinois.—The Republicans have a majority of three to five on joint bailet in the state leg-islature, though the Democrats will probably have a majority in the house. Latest returns ate that in congressmen the Republicans have held their own; while the Democrats have gained the additional member given un-der the redistricting. These returns give the der the redistricting. These returns give the following congressional delegations: 1st district, Ducham. Rep; 2d, Finerty, Ind Dem; 3t, Davis, Rep; 4th. Adams, Rep; 5th. Ellwood, Rep; 5th. Hitt. Rep; 7tr., Handerson, Rep; 8th. Cullen, Rep; 9th. Payson, Rep; 10th. Lawis, Rep; 1Ith. Marsh, Rep; 12th, Riggs, Dem; 13th, Springer, Dem; 14th, Rowell, Rep; 15th. Lowa-The following are the figures of cans, 7 Democrats.

Iowa—The following are the figures of Lowa by the State Bagister: Congressmen—First district, McLoid, Rep. re-elected 150 to 200; second district, Murphy, Dem. 2,650; third district, Henderson, Rep. by 1,000 to 1,200; fourth district, Updegraff, Rep. by 1,000; the fifth district is in deubt, and about even on present returns. fifth district is in doubt, and about even on present rerures. Unreported county townships will probably elect Wilson by 500; sixth district, Cutie, Rep., surely elected by 3,300 plurality; seventh, Kasson, Rep. by 4,500 plurality; and 1,200 majority; eighth, Hepburn, by 3,530 majority; ninth, very close, Pasey, Dem., probably elected; tenth, Holmes, Rep. 4,500 majority; eleventh, Struble, Rep. 4,500. Kansas—Three hundred and thirty-one precincts give the following majorities: Glick, Dem., 11,252; St John, Rep. 3,160. The Demecrats claim Glick's majority will be 10,000 in the state. All the Republican leaders concede the election of Glick over St John on the temperance issue.

Louisiana.—There was very little interestaten in the election. Blanchard is elected to congress and Jones for additional district udge. The Republican committee concede the election of Hunt, Ellis, King, Blanchard Herry, Democrats for congress but still solid democratic delegration, though the class is close in two districts. Democratic a jority on the state ticket, 60,000 Minnesota.—Following are the names the successful congressional candidates Minnesota: Second district, J. B. Wakefield

New York -- An extra issued by the Brook-New York.—An extra issued by the Brook-lyn Engle gives Cieveland a mojority of 172,-000. A Times' extra puts Cleveland's ma-jority at 174,000, according to returns received up to 10 a.m. and says the state legislature is strongly Democratic. The World makes Cleveland's majority 170,000, and that of Slocom for congressman at 100,008. Latest re-ports increase the Damecratic majority every-where and indicate that 45 out of the 60 counties in the state have gone Democratic. Among the remarkable changes is that in Cayuga cour-ty which gave 3,400 for Gara-id and now gives 2000 for Cleveland and Monroe county which shows 1,200 Democratic uniquity against 3.36; Republican majority in 1889. The Trues says the assembly of '83 will consist of '43 Republithe assembly of SS will consist of 42 Republicans and 85 Democrats, giving the Democrats a majority of 42. The senate, which holds over from last year, consists of 17 Democrats and 15 Republicans. The following congressman are elected beyond doubt: Fifth district, Nicholas Mulier; sixth, SS Cox; saventh, Wm Dorsheimer; eighth, John J Adams, ninth, John Hardy; teath, Abram S Hewitt; eleventh, Orlando B Potter, twelfth. Hotchins.

New Hampshire.—Revised and corrected returns from 225 towns give Haie 37,540, Edgerry 35,174, scattering 221. Of the 11 remaining towns the majority in five have been received which, with governors vate of '80 and cemaining six towns give Edgerry 179 majority, which makes Hale's majority 257. This majority probably cannot be reduced below 250 and may reach 300. The senate stands 11 Republican, 4 Democrats. One district makes Republican, 4 Democrats. ### A Rare Bit of Lace.

A piece of lace belonging to Mrs. Cooke, of Georgetown, is said by connoissenrs to be actually worth its weight in diamonds. It is like a spider's film, and is woven in a "lost" patters. The loss of patterns was a severe check to lace-making in France and Brussels and came about in a curious way. Before the French revolution whole villages supported themselves by lace-making, and patterns were handed down from one generation to another. They were valuable beirlooms, for the most celebrated weavers had as many orders as they could fill in a lifetime, for it was tedious work. But they were bound by an oath, taken on the four gespels, to work only for certain dealers. When the reign of terror began all business of the sort was interrupted for a time, for the "aristocrats" filled the tumbrils and crowded the guillotine, and the revolutionists were too busy driving them there to think of "purple and fine linen." When the storm subsided the dealers and workers were far apart; some dead, some lost, some escaped to other lands. and such of the women as remained were bound by their cath to work for but one. And this oath, in spite of Robespierre's doctrines was held by the poorest of them to be binding, and there are instances where they suffered actual want rather than forfeit their word. Some, however, taught their children and grandchildren, and many patterns were in this way preserved; out some of the daintiest and finest were never recovered, and-to make a long story short-Mrs. Cooke's lace is woven in one of these last nam:d .-Washington Capital.

California Raisin Business.

The cultivation of grapes for the production of raisins is a valuable injustry in California, and the time is not far distant when it bids fair to chief c'erk of the posteffice department has reach immense proportions. But little has been done in Napa valley in the way of raisin manufacture, although experiments on a small scale give A dispatch from Halifax, Nova every encouragement for its prosecution as an industry of considerable magnitude. There is a good market at remunerative prices for alfthat can be made, and it is an encouraging fact producers that notwithstanding the large production in the state last year, the slock run short this season long before a box of the new crop was available. A demand exists for raisins in France for the manufacture of wine, for which they are said to give nearly as good results as the undried fruit and this fact is creating an unexpected market. Malaga makes about 2,500,000 boxes annually, but there is abundant room in California for the culture of raisins to expand without coming in condict with the foreign crop. Twenty pound boxes of raisins bring at wholesale about 10 to 11 cents per pound. The crop of last year, raised in Yolo, Fresno, and in Los Angeles counties, including some small productions in Butte Yubs, and some of the foothill counties, is figured up at 140,000 boxes, which does not include the stock consumed in the vicinity of the point of production. The crop of the current year is figured at 60,000 boxes at the Riverside and Orange colonies and in Fresno county; while Briggs Bros., of Winters, and G. G. Briggs, of Yolo, expect to put up 70,-000 boxes. R. B. Bowers, of Yolo, will put up 1,700; John Bidwell, of Chico, 1,200; C. B. Westall, of Rocklin, 6,000 boxes, and ten tons of dried grapes; Chandler, of Sutter county, 4,-000, and West, of Stockton, 300 boxes. An approximation of the crop for this year gives 139,200 boxes, although it is believed that had early rains not set in the total would have reached 200,-000 boxes, worth from $400,000 to $500,-000. The shipment East last year was 70,000 boxes. From these facts it is evident that raisin production is becoming a settled industry in California.

Swiss Newspapers.

Switzerland, unlike other countries, has no leading journal, because no one town enjoys any great predominance of influence or population. The federal capital press has not the conspicuous place corresponding to the newspapers in other capitals. The press is and no paper has a large circulation, as mulat L'assumption has burned. Loss $30, foreigners would estimate it. The Swiss papers often copy items about their home affairs from the London journals, as they have little money to spend on gathering news. There are 307 political papers and official gazettes in Switzerland, published in 158 cities, towns and villages. Of these eighty-six are weeklies, 114 semi-weeklies, forty-seven tri-weeklies, forty-six are printed every day but Sunday, and four each day. Only one publishes a morning and evening edition. The total circulation is 665,000, about one for each voter. German is the principal language of the confederation, and 222 papers, having a circulation of 665 000. are printed in language of the primitive cantons; seventy-one, having a cir-culation of 128,000, are printed in French; seven, with a circulation of 9,-000, in Italian; two in Romansch, and one in English. The number of nonpolitical periodicals published in this country is 253 (164 in German, severi-ty-eight in French, seven in Italian and two in Romansch), with a combined circulation of 650,000.
